For Immediate Release

EurOmax Adds Mining Expertise to Board of Directors

Vancouver Canada: EurOmax Resources Limited (TSX-V: EOX) ("EurOmax" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that Mr. William P. Armstrong, has been appointed to the Company's board of directors. Mr. Armstrong joined the Company's technical advisory board on April 21, 2011. He has visited and reviewed the Company's properties as well as provided his technical expertise on these properties.

Mr. Armstrong is a geological engineer with Bachelors and Masters of Applied Science degrees from the University of British Columbia and over 40 years of experience in the exploration and evaluation of base and precious metals projects worldwide. He retired from Teck Cominco Ltd. in 2006 after 41 years, where he held the position of General Manager, Resource Evaluation for the last 10 years. In that role he managed a team that was responsible for all mineral reserves and resources at company properties for Teck Cominco and Cominco Ltd. He also headed a team of professionals responsible for evaluating and performing due diligence on potential acquisitions and divestitures.

Throughout his career, he was actively involved in the feasibility studies, construction and operation of many Cominco mines and joint ventures, notably Highland Valley Copper and the Polaris lead - zinc operations in the Canadian high Arctic and the Quebrada Blanca heap leach copper mine in Chile. He was also actively involved in feasibility and optimization projects at numerous other Cominco and Teck operations, including Pine Point (Canada), Red Dog (Alaska), Glenbrook Nickel (Oregon) and Antamina (Peru) and was a member of many joint venture management committees. Mr. Armstrong is currently a director of Taseko Mines Ltd.

John Nugent, Executive Chairman, states "Bill Armstrong brings to the EurOmax board a wealth of relevant industry experience necessary to assist the Company in maximizing the potential of its properties during exploration, and potentially through development to production. We welcome Bill to the board of directors and look forward to his contributions to our Company."

Mr. Armstrong's appointment is subject to the approval of the TSX Venture Exchange.
