

Euromax Appoints new President & CEO and new CFO

Euromax Resources Ltd., 6th November 2017 (TSX: EOX; OTCQB: EOXFF): ("Euromax" or the "Company"), announces that it has appointed Varshan Gokool as President and Chief Executive Officer and Nikola Gulev as Chief Financial Officer of the Company with immediate effect. Varshan was previously the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Nikola was the Company's Group Accountant. Steve Sharpe, the former President & CEO, will continue to serve as a Director of Euromax in a non-executive capacity.

In his new role Varshan, together with Pat Forward, the Company's Chief Operating Officer, will represent the key leadership of the Company, reporting to the Board and more regularly to the Executive Chairman Martyn Konig. Varshan's key responsibilities over the next year will be the delivery of value engineering work for the Ilovica-Stuka copper-gold project in Macedonia (the "Project"), finalisation of permitting and the completion of the finance plan to construct the Project, utilising the network he has developed in Macedonia over the past five years and his fifteen years of mining finance experience.

Commenting on the announcement, Varshan Gokool, President & CEO, noted:

"I am very excited to pick up the reins from Steve and drive the Company forward through the successful development of the Ilovica-Stuka Project. I am also pleased that we have appointed our second company officer from Macedonia, Nikola, in a key executive role. Nikola has already been with us two years and I am already familiar with his excellent work. Ausenco are up and running on the value engineering work, working towards the delivery of a Guaranteed Maximum Price and EPC contract. With the stabilised political situation in Macedonia we can focus on building our relationships with the new government to complete the Project permitting. I wish Steve well as he takes time out to pursue his other interests and appreciate him being available for us to benefit from his network in Macedonia. "
